

Seafood lovers are in for a treat!

Jon Walton and Jenny Evans from Plymouth Waterfront Partnership welcome you to this spectacular FREE festival. It is a vibrant celebration of the incredible sustainably caught fresh fish and seafood on offer in Britain's Ocean City.

Stalls will line The Parade, Quay Square and West Pier, selling delicious fresh dishes to enjoy on the day, as well as some special treats to take away.

Be inspired by some of the city's top chefs while they cook up an array of fishy delights from the Cookery Theatre at West Pier and enjoy some cool refreshments from Venton's Devon Cyder bar.

Visit the display of local species from Plymouth Trawler Agents and look out for the auction on Sunday. Sound Seafood will have some tasty samples for you to try of fresh Mackerel and Sardines. Meet the festival's resident artist, Debby Mason and watch the Lobster 'Withy' pot, by David French.

Please bring your refillable cups, reusable bags and containers to this event.

Fun for all the family

There will be plenty of fun for children too, including scallop shell painting, 'hook a duck', colouring activities and a walking trail to seek out the 10 beautiful sea life illustrations by Debby Mason, and collect a sweetie treat!

Join in the fun and games with the Ocean Conservation Trust including a sinking sharks STEM challenge, a fishperson dress up game, how to catch a 'Fish Finger' workshop, plus a fascinating Squid dissection!

On Saturday don't miss the awesome IMechE Cardboard Boat Race at Commercial Wharf, where the winner is the last one to sink!

Visit The Boathouse Cafe over the weekend, for their fabulous fresh seafood BBQ from 12pm.

On Sunday at 3pm watch the Barbican Theatre's FREE performance of 'Shodyyssey', by Assembleth, a family friendly comedy show.
