Plymouth

Plymouth, Britain's Ocean City, is one of Europe's most vibrant waterfront cities, with so much to explore. There's something for every traveller to experience in this historic city, however long you have to stay.

Visit the Barbican and Sutton Harbour for quaint cobbled streets, a picturesque harbour and wealth of independent shops and restaurants. History fans should stop by the Mayflower Steps.

Learn all about the departure of the Pilgrims on the Mayflower ship, who sailed from the UK to the US in 1620 in search of religious freedom.

A short walk from this historic heart of the city is Plymouth Hoe – to describe it as a park doesn't do it justice.

The Hoe is home to the striking red-and-white striped former lighthouse, Smeaton's Tower, the art-deco, open-air swimming pool Tinside Lido.

Industrial attractions to visit

The Box

The Box is a major new cultural and heritage attraction. With a series of amazing permanent galleries filled with objects you'll be able to discover the city's human history, natural history, art, media, photographic and archive collections.

You won't be able to miss the striking naval figureheads, all lovingly restored. Once built to adorn the bows of naval warships, these icons of maritime history are suspended in a huge sweep in The Box's main entrance space. One of the first exhibitions at The Box will be 'Mayflower 400: Legend and Legacy' a major show that explores the myths and uncovers new meanings connected to the Mayflower's epic journey in 1620.

Travel trade tours include The Box Highlights, Tour, The Mayflower Experience and many other bespoke tours which can be tailor made for your group.

Plymouth Gin

Black Friars Distillery, the working home of Plymouth Gin since 1793, is the oldest working gin distillery in England and is situated in the heart of the historic port city of Plymouth.

The building dates back to the early 1400's with the oldest part of the building – the Refectory, a medieval hall with a fine hull-shaped timber roof, dating back to 1431.

Take a guided tour and learn about the art of making the world-famous Plymouth Gin, enjoy a tutored tasting of the range and then relax in the Refectory cocktail lounge – the ultimate place to enjoy a cocktail and where the Pilgrims are said to have spent their last night before setting sail in the Mayflower to the New World.
